

IRFA Membership Application:
Individual Supporting Member

Join IRFA to:

- Get the latest expert advice on key church-state issues.
- Learn how to equip organizations to protect themselves in an increasingly secular environment.
- Network with leaders from an array of faith-based service organizations.
- Multiply your power to affect public policy.
- Demonstrate your support for the religious identity and faith-shaped practices of religious organizations.
- Show your commitment to upholding religious freedom for all.

Help to sustain IRFA initiatives that make your own educational and advocacy work more effective. Help to build a visible network of organizations and leaders that are alert, equipped, and vocal about institutional religious freedom and the value of faith-based services.

- Participate in member-only virtual meetings with top experts.
- Receive IRFA's newsletter with timely commentary
- Gain access to consulting services via one-to-one phone calls and email.

Name _____

Address _____

E-mail _____

Office Phone/Mobile Phone _____

Please do not publicize this membership.

Please provide a brief statement of your interest in and involvement with IRFA's areas of action (e.g., understand religious freedom cases, advise FBOs, develop policy on faith-based services):

Annual Dues for Individual Supporting Members

Silver $250 or more Gold $500 or more Platinum $1,000 or more

Please mail this application with a check for annual dues to:
IRFA, PO Box 48368 Washington, DC 20002

For more information, please visit IRFAlliance.org/membership/, call 202-695-2667, or email inquiries@cpjustice.org.

The Institutional Religious Freedom Alliance is part of the Center for Public Justice